Good Day to All!

As I said in my last note to everyone, the " Busy Season" is upon us! We are going to start everything off with some fun. We have anticipated our trip to Scottsville for some time now. Well, it is finally here! Be at the Garage on Saturday morning, 04/16/11, before 9:00 a.m. We will leave at 9:00 a.m. and head out to Ben Hamlet's to view his collections. I hear that he has all kinds of items to view at his place. In case you miss us at the Garage, his address is: Ben Hamlet, 3025 Highway 231 South, Castilian Springs, TN 37031. Pop that in your GPS and meet us there.

After our tour at Ben's, we will head to Scottsville. The Amish country will be fun to tour. We will find somewhere to eat while we are there. I'm sure there will be some shopping taking place, too.

Saturday, April 16th, is also Dumplin' Days at Fiddler's Grove. If you aren't able to go on the Scottsville trip, maybe you can work on the Garage that day. We need several cars for display purposes, so bring your "treasure" and park it at the Garage. Read Majors has agreed to work the Garage that day, but he will use all the help he can get!

Our first car show is at Mt. Juliet. It will be Sunday, May 1st. The location is new. We will be at the Publix Grocery parking lot just past the Providence Mall. This is next to the new Wilson Bank & Trust. We need to be there around 8 a.m. in order to get set up. I will send out more information later.

In case you missed our meeting this past Sunday, we learned that our own Read Majors received his 25th judging credit plaque at the Charlotte Show this past week end. Way to go Read! You're talking about several years work to accomplish that!

Okay, don't forget Saturday, 4/16/11, at the Garage at 9:00 a.m. Scottsville, here we come!
